Gabi has a renowned and unique floristry style that is inspired by the seasonal changes and the flowers grown and picked in her Norfolk cutting garden.

"We were blown away by the beauty of our wedding flowers. We visited Gabriel's Garden twice before the big day and shared our thoughts on how we wanted things to look. We couldn't believe how well Gabi translated this; the tumbling array of cottage garden loveliness all around the venue was everything we wanted. As for the wedding bouquet - I have never felt more beautiful." - Fiona & Mike

No awkward poses. Just relaxed and happy people

I've grown up in rural Norfolk and I think deep-down I will always be a little bit of a 'bumpkin'. I consider myself extremely fortunate to have turned a passion into my career and I can honestly say there is nothing I would rather be doing.

My favoured type of Wedding Photography is often referred to as a 'documentary' or reportage style. The benefits of this approach are very natural and candid shots that reflect the true nature of the day. It also means the important people can enjoy their day with little interruption.
