Grazia Strings are one of the North West's leading string ensembles. We are available for hire throughout the UK as a quartet, trio, duo or soloist for anyone looking for exceptional female string players for their special occasion. From large corporate events, weddings and restaurant openings to small parties, our quartet or trio will provide the perfect musical experience to enhance your memorable day. With a large repertoire of music to choose from, you are assured the music chosen will be perfectly tailored to your occasion.

Based in Manchester, our female string group is composed of current music students at the prestigious Royal Northern College of Music. We specialise in live classical, pop, and jazz music for weddings, receptions, private parties, and corporate events throughout the UK. We are happy to play either acoustic or electric instruments, or both, depending on your requirements.
