

Eynsham Hall
"WHOLEHEARTEDLY"

"Let's Tie The Knot"

Discover A Hidden Treasure

This fine Jacobean-style Grade II listed house nestles in the heart of 3,000 acres of Oxfordshire's finest parkland. With manicured topiary, formal gardens and terraces, peace and tranquillity prevails in this most privileged location.

Eynsham Hall is distinctly different and independently owned. Every wedding is bespoke and can be as formal or as relaxed as our couples desire.

Your Wedding Day

Weddings at Eynsham Hall are something of a speciality. The house was built for entertaining and we continue with that tradition. Our team has a wealth of experience hosting the finest ceremonies and receptions from intimate gatherings to more lavish affairs for over 100 guests.

We have an array of impressive settings to offer for wedding ceremonies and blessings and a choice of suites for fabulous wedding breakfasts.

All this as well as picture-perfect locations for those all important wedding photographs and it is not surprising that Eynsham Hall is one of Oxfordshire's most popular wedding venues.

Arrivals

Whether you hold your ceremony at Eynsham Hall or arrive from your marriage service, you will receive a warm welcome from our professional toastmaster, who will throw open the doors to greet your family and friends.

Welcome drinks and canapes can be served to your guests on the terrace, in the Library or Main Hall whilst photographs are discreetly taken before sitting down to your lavish wedding breakfast.

Ceremonies

Eynsham Hall is fully licensed to hold ceremonies and blessings for up to 150 guests. The Hall offers a choice of idyllic settings, be it the grandeur of the Green Room with two beautiful marble fireplaces, the Duberley Room overlooking the gardens, the splendour of the Red Room with a magnificent carved oak fireplace or the dignified Library adorned with leather bound books.

Wedding Packages

At Eynsham Hall we appreciate that planning a wedding can sometimes become complicated by the many elements that need to be included to make your day as individual as you. Recognising this, we have created a number of packages which incorporate all the traditional aspects of a wonderful wedding, whilst retaining personal choice and flexibility in the planning of your wedding day.

All of our packages include the services of our toastmaster.

Your personal wedding specialist will discuss your requirements and recommend a package suitable for you.

And So To Eat

Delicately prepared by our head chef and team, our extensive wedding menus have been thoughtfully developed to provide you with a sumptuous feast for your celebration. The secret of our cuisine lies in the excellent quality of ingredients, combined with a deceptively simple approach to the preparation.

Once you have confirmed your date, you and your partner will be invited to a complimentary menu tasting.

And So To Bed

The honeymoon suite is the perfect place to start married life with a sinfully comfortable bed, marble bathroom and antique furniture set in a stunningly grand room overlooking the gardens.

Your guests can enjoy the grandeur of our Main Hall rooms or the Cosy Doubles in the grounds.

Relax And Unwind

Whilst at Eynsham Hall, you and your guests can while away the time in the award-winning Gun Room Bar or relax on the Champagne Terrace. Play a few sets of tennis or take a mallet to a croquet ball and emulate the house party activities of a golden era.

If your exercise tastes are more contemporary, then make use of the gymnasium and swimming pool or sweat it out in the sauna.

History of Eynsham Hall

On this site for over 300 years has stood one of Oxfordshire's great country homes. Built by Willoughby Lacey in the early 1700's Eynsham Manor was a typical Georgian house. In 1778 he sold the estate to Robert Langford. On Langford's death in 1785 ownership passed to James Duberley. Duberley remained at the hall until 1799 when the Reverend John Robinson moved in. In 1805 he sold the estate to Sir Thomas Parker. Sir Thomas's father purchased Eynsham Hall to serve as the Dower house for Shirburn Castle.

On the death of Sir Thomas's mother the estate was sold to Sir Thomas Bazley MP. 1866 saw the arrival of the present freeholder's great grandfather, James Mason. After his death in 1903, his son, James Francis Mason and his wife Lady Evelyn took over the hall and in 1904 the Georgian house was demolished. Sir Ernest George was appointed as the architect and supervised the construction to his design of the present day Jacobean style mansion completed in 1908.

With the onset of WWI the house was used to assist in the war effort. Eynsham Hall has also been used by Barclays Bank, the Air Ministry and as a maternity hospital. For 35 years it was a district police training centre. In 1981 the hall became a conference and training centre and in April 2005 the lease was acquired by the Cathedral Group. Since then substantial work to the grounds, gardens and the Main Hall have taken place making this an idyllic setting, whatever the occasion.

WITH THANKS

Eynsham Hall wishes to extend its appreciation to the photographic contributors from the following organisations and their clients:

David Bostock ~ www.davidbostockphotography.co.uk
Des Dubber Photography ~ www.desdubber.co.uk
Neil Hanson Photography ~ www.nordicpics.co.uk
Mario Mage ~ www.immage.co.uk
Jen Marino ~ www.jenmarino.com
Pzazz Photography ~ www.pzazzphotography.com
Mark Sisley ~ www.marksisley.co.uk
SLR Photography ~ www.slr-weddingphotography.co.uk
Squib Photography ~ www.squibphotography.co.uk
Rob Wheal ~ www.robwhealphotography.com
Benjamin Wheeler Photography ~ www.benjaminthomaswheeler.com

“It Wouldn’t Be The Same Without You”