

CEREMONIES BY KELLEY
FAMILY AND FUNERAL CELEBRANT

ABOUT ME

“I’m an Independent Celebrant based in Hertfordshire but cover all surrounding counties. I conduct ceremonies for all of life’s important events, including weddings, funeral, naming ceremonies and renewal of vows. I’m a friendly, warm and professional celebrant. I know how important it is to have a celebrant who takes a leadership role, regardless of the type of ceremony they are conducting, so this is something that I pride myself on providing the families, couples and individuals I work with. I do this because I love it, I love being part of such momentous occasions and consider it an honor to be entrusted with so many personal details about a person’s life and love.

CEREMONY STYLES

I create all types of beautiful services ranging from relaxed and Intimate, traditional, religious or spiritual to amazing themed weddings. There really is no limitation on the type of service you want to create.

MY CEREMONIES

The beauty of a Wedding ceremony led by me, is that there is complete versatility in the style, length and setting of your Ceremony. I work closely with couples to ensure it is exactly as you want. This is your opportunity to tell your very special love story, interwoven with special memories, poems and speeches that are read either by myself or close friends or family members.

Your Wedding ceremony can take place inside or outside a venue; for example, it can take place on a beach, in a museum, in a stately home or in mum and dad's back garden. It can be as formal or relaxed as you want and all the special people will still be there, including the Best Man, bridesmaids and ring bearers.

You can exchange Wedding rings and Wedding vows that have written specially for each other. There are no standard vows in my ceremonies, only words spoken from your heart to your partners

The majority of ceremonies conducted by me are non-religious but can contain religious elements and can also include traditional and cultural customs such as hand-fasting etc. My ceremonies are usually very relaxed and special because of its personalised touches and its bespoke style. I make sure to spend plenty of time with the happy couple before your Wedding Day, helping you to plan the Wedding of your dreams

HOW DO I DO IT?

- An initial call or email chat to get in touch and find out more. A first 'big picture' meeting to learn all about you, and your hopes and vision for the big day.
- A signed agreement that we're going to work together (this document).
- A questionnaire for you to complete and send back to me. I even have one for friends and family which brings some lovely surprises
- Poetry / Reading Suggestions
- Unity Ceremony Walk through ( if needed )
- Personalised Vow Writing sessions
- A second meeting where I read you the first draft of your ceremony and we drill down on the details. This usually takes place around 3 months before your ceremony.
- Unlimited calls / zoom / Messages between set meetings for tweaks and ideas
- Agreement on the final format of your ceremony, and provision of the final details for you to incorporate into your Order of Service, if you are having one.
- A rehearsal/walk through at the venue, if you would like one.
- Leading your ceremony on the day.
- A certificate and a presentation copy of your script.

So how do I work with couples?

No two love stories are the same, neither are two couples. So when working with a couple I tend to find out what works for you. The detail you see to the left is usually the process that I follow to get to know you both and for me to collect all the wonderful detail and memories that make your love story unique.

"We are so glad we chose Kelley as the celebrant for our wedding. She's such a lovely, warm person and really easy to chat to. Kelley was so helpful with all aspects of our ceremony and had so many great ideas. She totally "got" us and the tone we wanted for our special day. She was on hand with any questions we had leading up to the wedding and even helped us with our vows! We absolutely loved our ceremony, it was beautiful, personal and had a lovely touch of humor... exactly what we were looking for. Thank you so much Kelley, you really are a star" xx

Laura & Stewart

"Kelley is such a lovely person and very good at what she does. From the moment we made contact I knew she was the right person for us. She made our day the best it possibly could of been (except for the heat, but I don't think even she had the magic to cool the temperature down ) A very big thank you Kelley from Michelle and Jason xxx"

"Kelley is professional, supportive and more importantly kind, fun and a joy to have had her officiating our wedding. She made us feel special in every way, including our vows.

We would highly recommend Kelley for your wedding day"

Lina & Phil

"Its been a pleasure to work with you Kelley, thank you for putting up with my panic, my inability to write romantic sentences, and Steve's inability to say them without crying. We wanted warm, authentic and funny for our wedding, and from the moment we first had our initial conversation, it was just that. We smiled, laughed and cried. Perfect"

Steve and Robyn

I wouldn't hesitate to recommend Ceremonies by Kelley for your wedding. Before planning our wedding, I never knew about Celebrants. Now, I cant see why anyone would ever want to use a standard wedding service, when you can have one tailored to your own love story. It was romantic, sappy and hilarious. Just like us. Much love J&G xx

Jessica & Gary

THANK YOU

Thank you for taking the time to consider me for your day. It means a lot, this isn't just a job to me, this is my passion, and that shows in the way i write ceremonies. I create and write you story with just as much care and detail as i would do my own. So the fact you are reading this and considering me means a lot. Thank you for supporting Celebrants, and the amazing work we do to deliver personal and thoughtful services to amazing couples just like you. xx

*I look forward to hearing your love
story.....*
