We weave magic and meaning into everything we do, we're passionate about helping people make life-long memories.

Based in the beautiful Devon countryside and working throughout the South West and in London, we plan stunning events from intimate candlelit gatherings and elegant dinner parties to large, lavish weddings and luxury corporate events.

Specialising in events held within historic buildings and at beautiful outdoor locations, we approach every commission with creative flair and meticulous attention to detail.

EXCUSE FOR A PARTY

Hi, I'm Jessica

With more than a decade of event management experience, I've delivered countless high end, large-scale celebrations in a wide range of venues. My passion for planning and all things party-related blossomed and grew while working in the events team at Hampton Court Palace.

Whether a palace, castle or country house I adore events held within historical and heritage environments. My events experience also extends to large outdoor events and luxury marquees. I adore nature, so whether surrounded by rolling hills or dramatic coastal views, I'm in my element when planning events outside.
