Weddings

ABOUT Lanhydrock

A gorgeous retreat, set in 180 acres of countryside lying on the edge of Bodmin Moor and at the heart of Cornwall, the wedding you dream about can be found at Lanhydrock Hotel and Golf Club. Owned by Graham and Clare Bond, it marries contemporary and traditional style, reflecting the couple's vision for a luxurious and comfortable escape, the ultimate venue to celebrate your special day.

Ever since the Bond Family purchased the Golf Club in 1993, its central location has been the perfect base to explore Cornwall and the dream venue to say "I do". Forget any stiff formalities, this family-run business has an embracing charm with friendliness and a personal touch at its core so every aspect of your wedding runs smoothly from start to finish. No fuss, no drama - organising a wedding is a fantastic experience and Lanhydrock will make sure you enjoy every minute. Every element is considered to ensure an unforgettable occasion, from a red carpet welcome to bespoke ideas to fulfil your vision.

You'll be torn between admiration for the little details and the stunning views across the wooded valleys, lakes and golf course. There's nowhere quite like the Lanhydrock Hotel and Golf Club, a venue for both recreation and relaxation, uniting indulgence and comfort in happy harmony. Your perfect wedding starts here. The only concern you'll have is not wanting to leave.

YOUR Grounds

Beauty comes in many forms, and at the Lanhydrock Hotel and Golf Club you will be spoilt for choice. Will you fall in love with the wildlife area, with waddling ducks on the perfectly preened grounds and occasional swans creating ripples across the lakes? Perhaps the sheltered wooded valley set against rolling countryside will steal your heart, or maybe you'll be charmed by its matchless position at Cornwall's centre, close to its most beautiful locations. It's likely that all of these features will leave you eager to explore. Located on the outskirts of the old county town of Bodmin, easily accessible via the A30/A38, it is just one hour's drive from Exeter and less than 30 minutes from Newquay Airport. This is an ideal wedding venue easily reached by road, rail and air. With its stylish exterior and interior perfectly complementing the surroundings, Graham and Clare have poured their creativity and soul into Lanhydrock's design prowess. Think opulence without intimidation and contemporary style with a warm welcome - it is the finest backdrop for your own wedding ideas. Set in an outstanding landscape position, Lanhydrock Hotel and Golf Club gives you extensive views of an 18 hole golf course, and there's an effortless fusion between the outdoor and indoor environments. A beautiful landscape combined with an unrivalled service for you and your guests.

YOUR Ceremony

This is a magical setting perfect for a Civil Ceremony, Wedding Breakfast or Evening Celebration. Upon arrival, you'll walk up a red carpet through the main entrance followed by your drinks reception - this is modern luxury with a laid back, welcoming touch. Lanhydrock offers a selection of licensed rooms that can accommodate up to 100 guests. The Reception Lounge is a lovely area to relax and enjoy a chilled glass of champagne, before being called to dine in the St Hydroc Suite which has its own bar and balcony with stunning views across the expansive grounds.

When you book a wedding with Lanhydrock, our specialist co-ordinators will work with you each step of the way to help you plan every aspect of your day. The team love meeting with couples to discuss their ideas to tailor-make the wedding day they envisage and so much more. Your ideas will become a reality and nothing is too much trouble - so just ask.

YOUR Photography

Where to start? Wedding photographers love Lanhydrock for its lush green grounds and endless choice of locations to snap unique and captivating pictures. Spring, Summer, Autumn or Winter; Lanhydrock's sweeping gardens can be enjoyed in the warmer months or its superb interiors if the sun decides to stay away. It's one of those environments that photographers have so much fun shooting in, amazing areas with beautiful backdrops for you to explore. Worried about capturing that perfect smile? Don't be - whizzing around on golf buggies is certain to provoke those laugh-out-loud moments and always proves very popular! Lanhydrock provides endless opportunity for photos which are spontaneous and individual, and it's often the moments that can't be staged that deliver the best results. Think of a swan strolling across your frame or woodland leaves blowing in the wind - your wedding photos will be memorable, meaningful and timeless.

YOUR Reception

Lanhydrock prides itself on flexibility and making your budget work harder for you. There are three popular Wedding Packages to choose from - each with their own unique features to deliver on every aspect of your day - or if you would prefer to build your own with the wedding co-ordinators, that's fine too. All three of Lanhydrock's packages have been created and refined from years of experience and know-how so rest assured that the team have it covered. From red carpet arrival and discount on accommodation for wedding guests, to a complementary Honeymoon Suite and two golf buggies for your use, there's bespoke highlights both big and small which will catch your eye and make all the difference.

Your guests can relax and enjoy the impressive Cornish countryside before dining in the St Hydroc Suite which will be dressed with fresh, starched white linen, glassware, sparkling cutlery and crockery. It will be reserved for your sole use throughout your daytime celebrations and refreshed ready for a smooth transition into your evening. With space for 150 guests and an outdoor balcony, the St Hydroc Suite offers an impressive setting when the sun goes down, with a licence for entertainment and an open bar until midnight. If you have any of your own ideas, the wedding co-ordinators would be delighted to talk them through to make your day what it should be - your own. On the day, the team will make sure everything runs smoothly, right down to the very last detail...even mopping tears of joy or calming nerves.

YOUR Menu

The beauty of the building and surroundings are matched only by the quality of the food and service. A team of professional chefs have designed a variety of different menus from which you can select your Wedding Breakfast and Evening Buffet, or you can create your own with the help of your co-ordinator. Lanhydrock has received some very unique requests in the past and welcomes your ideas - everyone's tastes are different and the team's focus is producing dishes which you and your guests savour right to the very last mouthful.

Selecting the best combinations of foods to complement each other, using Cornish fresh produce wherever possible, your menu will be served to the highest quality and can cater for any guests who have allergies or special dietary requirements. You may wish to tick the boxes of tradition, in which case a dish like Lanhydrock's Slow Roasted Topside of Cornish Beef with Homemade Yorkshire Pudding will get your tummy rumbling. Perhaps their indulgent vegetarian options will catch your eye; the colourful Mediterranean Vegetable & Mozzarella Timbale with Tomato & Basil Sauce is a sure favourite.

Lanhydrock's desserts will make every guest eager to eat sweet; a Strawberry and Shortbread Stack with Cornish Clotted Cream, Ice Cream and Berry Coulis never fails to evoke simultaneous 'umms' and 'ahhs'.

If you and your guests ever manage to leave the dance floor, your evening buffet will be waiting for you with a delicious selection of nibbles to satisfy any taste or appetite. Fish Goujons, Chunky Potato Wedges, Quiche and, of course, Cocktail Meat and Cheese and Onion Cornish Pasties, are just a few popular choices.

The team have carefully selected a variety of drinks packages, offering the highest quality wines at great value. On arrival, a Westcountry Cider Punch may fit the bill for your quintessential summer celebration, or why not try a Mulled Wine as a tippie for warming hands and hearts at a winter wedding? For the toast, indulge in a glass of Camel Valley Brut, an award-winning, world-class wine produced just a few miles up the road. "There is more to life than food and drink, but it's a good place to start."

YOUR Stay

Your wedding celebrations extend far beyond one day and Lanhydrock's additional services provide so much more from the minute you arrive. There's discounted accommodation offered to all wedding guests in the luxury 45 bedroom hotel, reduced green fees for all hotel residents wishing to use the stunning 18 hole golf course, and depending on the package you choose, a complementary honeymoon suite along with three bedrooms and breakfast. Superior suites can be included in your package for a sumptuous stay throughout - pamper before the big day and recuperate the morning after?

Retreat to Lanhydrock's Nineteen Bistro and Bar for relaxed dining both at lunchtime and during the evenings throughout your visit. Enjoy a modern English menu with local produce. If it's a simple bar snack you're after, no problem. If you need a hearty three course meal to settle any pre-wedding nerves, take your choice. Consider gathering your nearest and dearest the evening before your big day for an extra special, private dinner in Lanhydrock's Turret Room - an intimate setting for up to 24 guests who can dine from the Bistro Menu.

At the heart of Cornwall and close to many of the county's most spectacular locations, you and your guests can enjoy unforgettable moments throughout your celebrations. If you're having a summer wedding, why not have a beach BBQ the next day, reminiscing the highlights? Take a boat trip from Padstow harbour, marvel at the breathtaking coastline or stride to the top of Rough Tor - Cornwall is very special and you're certain to be captivated by its many charms and hidden treasures.

With an open and flexible ethos to accommodate your every wish and want, Lanhydrock Hotel and Golf Club will create a magical wedding experience for you and your guests to cherish.
