ROOMS

For a more stylish civil ceremony

REGENCY SUITE

This is one of our largest suites and can welcome up to 100 people (and 80 for the wedding breakfast). Featuring the same period elegance as our magnificent Ballroom but on a more intimate scale, this beautiful room is flooded with natural light.

A lovely, spacious, elegant area that will make your day feel even more special.

ROOMS

CANTERBURY SUITE

Wander up the swirling spiral staircase to the first floor and you'll find the Canterbury Suite waiting for you. This elegant room has been tastefully renovated to its original Victorian splendour.

There are stunning views over the Strand, and this superb space can accommodate up to 50 people for a ceremony or wedding breakfast, so it's perfect for smaller celebrations.

Please note that we have a full license to hold civil ceremonies in both The Canterbury and The Regency suites.

ROOMS

For the most wonderful wedding celebration

THE BALLROOM

This is our flagship function room and is perhaps the one we're most proud to share with our guests. Designed by Royal Opera House architect Edward Middleton Barry, its elegantly sculpted ceiling and glittering chandeliers help to create a breath-taking space.

It's not easy finding such a vast room in the heart of London, let alone one as lavish and luxurious as this. If you want to make your big day even more fabulous, then we promise you that this is the place to do it. The Ballroom can also host up to 150 guests for your wedding breakfast.

THAMES SUITE

This is a much more intimate space than the Ballroom, yet still retains the same gorgeous feeling of style and elegance.

The high ceiling and huge picture windows make it wonderfully open and light. And even though it's not a vast room, the classic décor and elegant touches make it feel every bit as sumptuous.

The Thames Suite is perfect for a wedding breakfast, catering for up to 50 guests.
